

THE SHAMANIC ASTROLOGY MYSTERY SCHOOL
DISCUSSES HOW

VENUS AND MARS REVEAL SEX AND GENDER

Presented by founder Daniel Giamario and Mary Kern

Key Points to cover

- How does Shamanic Astrology use the natal chart for clues to one's gender expression?
- How does the directional flow of the archetypal energies help to determine if the soul's journey is more masculine or feminine in nature?
- Why is it important to help a client give themselves permission to express who they are at a soul level.
- Why do we say the soul is polytheistic?

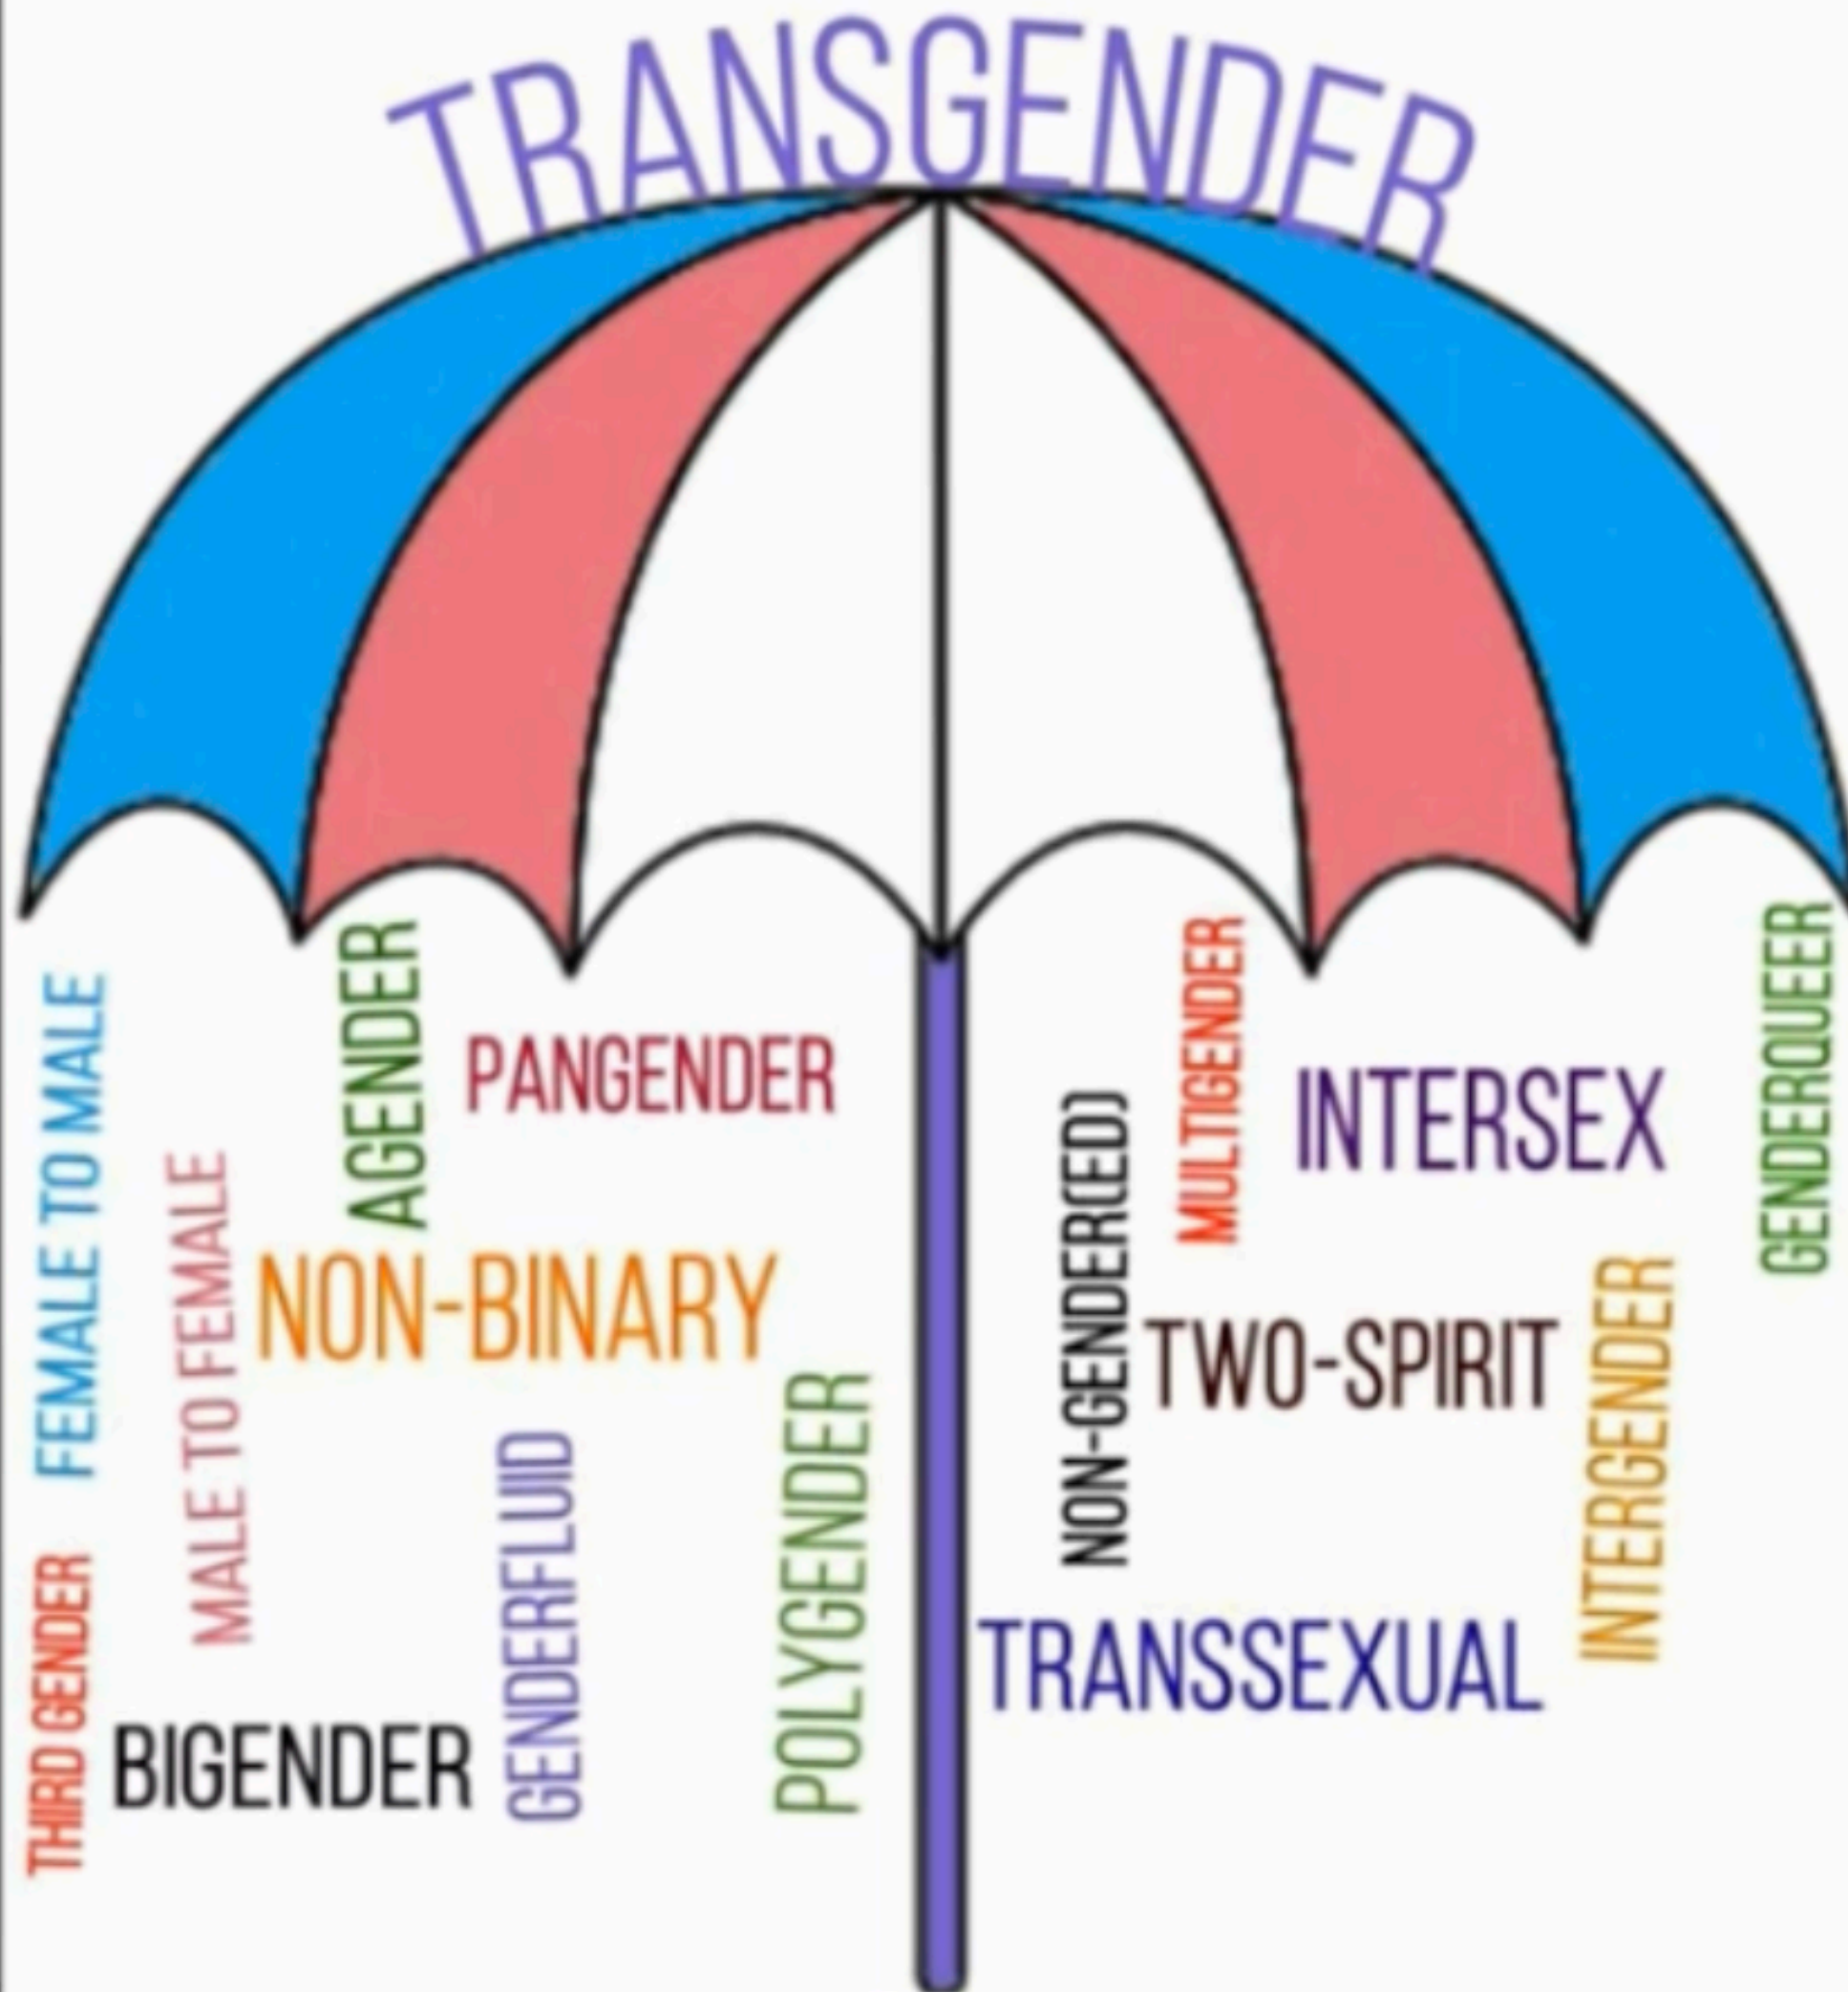

Where do we go

Definitions:

SEX

Refers to the biological difference between being male or female

GENDER

Refers to the way a human expresses their biological sex

This differs through time and culture and is not always binary

IT STARTS WITH THE BIRTH CHART

When a person is born the planet locations determine their archetypal energy patterns. These imprint on the soul and physical body to create an energy signature of that soul.

This imprint is the agreement that the soul made with the universe at the time it arrives. We agree to explore and fully express these archetypes.

VENUS ARCHETYPE

MAN'S MARS ARCHETYPE

WOMAN'S

MARS represents the Sacred Masculine.

For a man, its location on the natal chart indicates which archetypal version of Sacred Masculine energy

For a woman, its location on the natal chart indicates the archetypal version of Sacred Feminine energy

express the qualities of FIRE and AIR

FIRE archetypes: ARIES, LEO AND SAGITTARIUS

AIR archetypes : GEMINI, LIBRA AND AQUARIUS

FEMININE ARCHETYPES

express the qualities of
EARTH and WATER

EARTH archetypes: TAURUS, VIRGO, and CAPRICORN

Integrate the archetypes of the Inner Beloved

We began with the archetypal version of MARS for a man and
VENUS for a woman

Shamanic Astrology teaches that Wholeness results when a man integrates the archetypes of his Mars with his Venus
Likewise, a Woman needs to integrate the archetypes of her Venus and her Mars
This archetypal blending of the opposite sex planet with the same sex planet
Is known in our school as

The Inner Sacred Marriage

When we do our inner sacred marriage process we are merging with the archetype of the other part of our soul This is who we are becoming and what we are learning—considered neither masculine or feminine

In sufism every human being has another part of themselves that they are searching for to integrate for wholeness

SAMS sees 12 masculine archetypes and 12 feminine archetypes—
offering a possibility of 24 gender expressions and noting there can be many more

SAMS sees the soul as POLYTHEISTIC needing to express in many versions of itself
with all versions equal

Today there are dozens
if not more gender variations

12 Gods and Goddesses

GENDER EXPRESSION

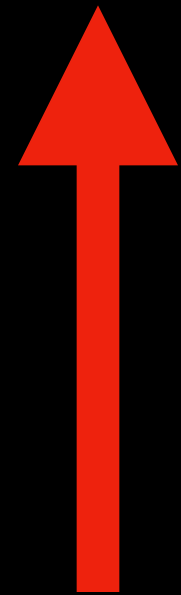

Is also impacted by the

PROGRESSIVE FLOW OF THE SOUL →

This is created by the progressive development of one's natal archetypes representing their Moon (lineage), a man's Mars or a woman's Venus, and completed by their Rising Sign (life's purpose)

THIS FLOW OF THESE ARCHETYPAL ENERGIES

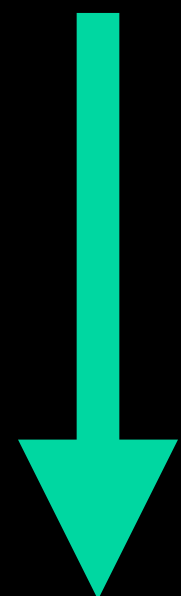

is either

EVOLUTIONARY: A MASCULINE JOURNEY

The energy is moving up and out from the density of Earth and Water to the more subtle expression of fire or air

Or

INVOLUTIONARY: A FEMININE JOURNEY

the energy is moving down and in from the more subtle and refined fire or air, into the greater density of water or earth

SEX AND GENDER

A brief history

First we are human. We are born with the biology of either XX or XY chromosomes with the exception of 5% that have different degrees of ambiguity and .5% who are born hermaphrodites with both XX and XY

INTERPRETING GENDER

We often think of the Moon as feminine energy and the Sun as masculine energy.

Many cultures and languages, however, treat the Moon as masculine and the Sun as feminine including the Norwegian, Lithuanian, German Teutonics, Sanskrit, Swedish, Ancient Anglo-Saxons, Sumarian, Arabic, Egyptian, Japanese and many South American cultures.

The word "SUN" comes from the Norse word
Sunnah,
the Sun Goddess

The word "MOON"
comes from the
Anglo-Saxon word
Mona,
a Moon God

In the past and present, culture assigns the roles of what a man and a woman are to express to determine their acceptance into mainstream society.

In the 1960s and 1970s the gay revolution, the feminist movement and the sexual revolution placed these roles under examination. These roles were found for many to not be authentic expressions. There are many alternative gender expressions that were not formally recognized or confirmed by main stream society.

EARLY GENDER IDENTIFICATION

In Ireland, the land of the goddess— words for both Sun and Moon are feminine—Grian is the Word for Sun and Gealach is the Moon

In Matrilineal culture, Females (humans with XX chromosomes) were often the active force

PRIOR TO THE PATRIARCH

the masculine role was very different

The Dagda, known as the “Bull god” was one version of the Taurus god that was required to marry the land.

The Green Man was a matrilineal version of the Gemini god—who symbolized the cycle of life and celebrated rebirth each spring

Lakota and Aboriginal cultures honored gender expression for individuals that were in-between the typical binary roles

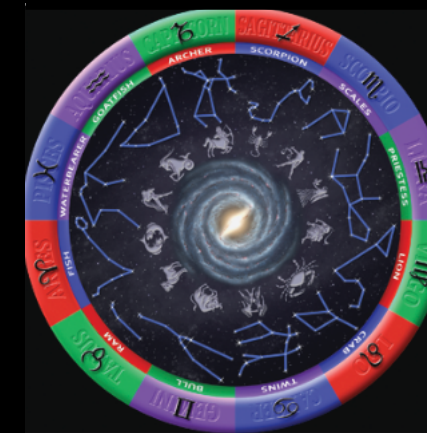

The Lakota named them the “heyoka”

Sun sign astrology is a relic of the patriarchy that believes in one god above all others

Sun sign astrology has primarily all male symbols that inshrine and elevate patriarchy and monotheism

THE I CHING AND YIN YANG SYMBOL

are expression of the masculine and feminine energies that FLOW AND CHANGE and ARE NOT STATIC

The SAMS Paradigm
sees gender expression this same way

In Ancient Chinese philosophy, yin and yang is a concept of duality that describe how seemingly opposite or contrary forces may actually be complementary, interconnected, and interdependent in the natural world.

They may give rise to each other as they interrelate to one another
