

This is the 10th year of the Celestial Timings and I am profoundly grateful for all the wonderful support and encouragement I have received that has inspired me to keep engaging and sharing these mysteries. In response to my own dramatically changing life situation I have accepted a generous offer that will help me keep investing my time and energy into producing the Celestial Timings each month. Starting now the Celestial Timings with in-depth daily offerings are changing to a paid subscription. There will be two lists one is the in-depth daily Celestial Timings and the other is a free Moon Calendar and ShamanicAstrology.com Newsletter. For those who subscribe to the in-depth Celestial Timings in the month of March the introductory subscription fee for the next year is $20. Starting April 1 the yearly subscription fee will change to $24. That works out to $2 a month or less than 7 cents a day. To activate your subscription please visit <http://www.sosasipapu.com/catalog/>. For those of you who have sent donations this year of $20 or more please email me and I will make sure your subscription is activated.

And in case you missed it last month I am also in the process of changing my name from Carolyn Brent to Cayelin Castell as another feature of the massive Pluto transformation I have undergone the past two years. March is my birthday month featuring several highly potent and transformative events including two important eclipses. More and more it is evident that we are being called to live beyond our known familiar reality and to continually embrace the unfolding Great Mystery. Blessed Be!!!!

March 2006 Celestial Timings

By Cayelin K. Castell
Formerly Known As Carolyn Brent

The wizard lives in a state of knowingness.
This knowingness orchestrates its own fulfillment.

The field of awareness organizes itself around our intentions.

Knowledge and intention are forces.
What you intend changes the field in your favor.

Intensions compressed into words enfold magical power.

The wizard does not try to solve the mystery of life.
He (She) is here to live it.

Way of the Wizard ~by Deepak Chopra

It is no surprise that March continues in intensity with two eclipses and three planetary retrograde stations including Pluto stationing retrograde at Galactic Center on the day of the Solar Eclipse (Mar 29). There are many ways to look at these events and what they might foretell. However Shamanic Astrology does not work from a predictive perspective but rather works from the perspective of intent and how we can consciously participate with that intent.

One of the basic premises of Shamanic Astrology is "we inform the mysteries as much as they inform us." It is a dynamic relationship and what we are thinking, feeling, saying, and doing affects our experience. As Deepak says above "What you intend changes the field in your favor." And "Intensions compressed into words enfold magical power." He also reminds us it is not about predicting or solving the mystery of life, it is about living it and being conscious of how we are participating with the process.

When we come from love and stay focused on our intent then we are informing the mysteries about how we are choosing to engage these rapidly changing times and how we are co-creating our life experience regardless of what worldly events may be occurring at the moment. Trusting the unfolding Great Mystery is exactly what it needs to be and trusting our ability to respond in a healthy way to whatever is taking place helps us to more consciously participate with these changes. Once again it helps to remember what the Hopi Elders are reminding us of: "We are the Ones we have been waiting for!"

Mar 1, Wednesday. This month begins with the Moon in Aries calling our attention to the Aries Solar Eclipse happening on March 29. It may be helpful to begin tuning into what this Aries Eclipse energy is for you and how you want to choose to engage it. Tonight about an hour after Sunset Aries crescent Moon (10 Aries) is visible just above the western horizon with messenger Mercury (27 Pisces) ready to station retrograde tomorrow and visible to the lower right of the Moon if you have a very low horizon line. Aries energy is quick and decisive often intuitively and spontaneously acting before reflecting. This is a great time to take any action that inspires you and is intended to move energy toward the fulfillment of your soul's purpose. Also if you haven't backed up your computer or other important data recently it is time to act on that now.

Mar 2, Thursday. Mercury goes Retrograde reaching the exact Still Point late tonight or early tomorrow morning depending on your time zone. (See Mar 4). The transformational messenger, Mercury (27 Pisces) is also in a nearly exact square to Pluto (27 Sagittarius) who is now aligned at Galactic Center. As indicated in the February Timings the Center of our Galaxy is the place the Mayan's called Hunab Ku the giver of all movement and measure and it turns out scientists have discovered a black hole here that sends out huge amounts of energy - in essence acting as a divine transmitter and receiver. It has been 248 years since Pluto passed by here and is acting to clear any blocks that prevent us from utilizing this energy. This means we can then receive new information especially with the assistance of this Mercury Retrograde now in direct relationship to Pluto. These events indicate major shifts in our planetary vibrational space-time grid as well as our own personal grids or blueprints and how they interact with the greater collective experience. We are being called to a whole new vibrational energy field, a new perceptual reality where we see and experience the manifestation of Heaven on Earth.

Mercury stations direct on Mar 25 at 13 Pisces again accessing the Still Point. This next three week period is a great timing for engaging right-brained creative activities, doing inner healing processes, completing projects already in motion, and making allowances for left brained communication processes that may not fully compute the first time around.

Mar 3, Friday. The waxing crescent Moon moves into Taurus transmitting the mysteries of receivership, beauty and intimacy. When we can truly receive who we are within ourselves it comes from a place of personal intimacy. The original Latin root of intimacy is intimare meaning "to make familiar with." Becoming familiar with ourselves, knowing and respecting who we are assists us in truly experiencing deep intimacy (or closeness) with another who also intimately knows who they are. The true art of intimacy extends to every level of being including physically, mentally, emotionally, and spiritually. When we are connected on all these levels within ourselves then our sharing naturally comes from deep personal intimacy. With the Moon passing through Taurus over the next couple of days this is a great time for noting and deepening your own personal intimate connection with yourself and those you love.

Mar 4, Saturday. (Responding to the command of this day to March Forth and celebrate, enjoy and savor life I am also marking my 50th birthday...Yay!!!) Also today Jupiter (18Scorpio52) stations retrograde at 10:02 pm PST. Retrogrades are similar to the act of pulling an arrow back on the bow. The arrow is moving away from the target, but gathering power and momentum to move more purposefully and directly towards its goal. Retrograde Jupiter in Scorpio is a time to notice what is most passionately alive for you. Jupiter remains retrograde until Jul 6, 2006 creating a window of time for asking how you can deepen your relationship with the people, places, and activities that expand your vision and are the greatest turn on when you are engaging with them? What prevents this from happening and what can you do to create the changes that will support living your passion? TS Elliot's poem The Still Point describes the simplicity and complexity of planetary stations. This month includes Mercury (Mar 2 or 3), Jupiter (today), and Pluto (Mar 29) this month with retrograde Saturn slowing down to station on April 5.

*At the still point of the turning world.
Neither flesh nor fleshless;
Neither from nor towards;
at the still point, there the dance is,
But neither arrest nor movement.
And do not call it fixity,
where past and future are gathered.
Neither movement from nor towards,
neither ascent nor decline.
Except for the point, the still point,
there would be no dance,
and there is only the dance,
I can only say, there we have been:
but I cannot say where.
And I cannot say, how long,
for that is to place it in time.
The inner freedom from the practical desire,
The release from action and suffering,
release from the inner and the outer compulsion,
yet surrounded by a grace of sense,
a white light still and moving.*

Mar 5, Sunday. Venus moves into Aquarius and the Gemini Moon conjuncts Mars (8 Gemini) conjunct the fixed star Aldebaran, the eye of the Bull. Venus is now traveling through Aquarius until April 5 daring to explore new territory, experimenting with new ideas and innovative ways, revolutionizing current thinking. This energy operates from a cosmic perspective shifting the current assemblage point through radical and often disruptive changes liberating us into expanded states of objective awareness and insight.

Mars conjunct Aldebaran is worth noting in the evening sky activating our awareness around this Royal Star. The supportive energies of Aldebaran are accessed when we approach its mysteries with pure intent. According to the information in Starlight Elixirs and Cosmic Vibrational Healing by Michael Smulkis and Fred Rubinfeld <http://hilarion.com/stars.html> Aldebaran is linked with the original genetic coding that allowed for the experience of free will here on planet Earth and "...the beings from Aldebaran hope that humanity may someday choose to co-create a civilization with them..."

Mar 6, Monday. Retrograde Mercury is now disappearing from the evening sky. Shamanically this symbolizes Mercury's journey into the underworld to begin its transformation into a whole new archetype (Pisces) including heart-centered communication through empathy and compassion. When heart and mind are compassionately and harmoniously synchronized in the Pisces realm then creative expression and communication are maximized.

Mar 7, Tuesday. The Moon is moving into Cancer this afternoon crossing the Galactic Anti-Center located near the center of the Sacred Hoop of stars. The Cancer mysteries are focused on responsible nurturing, first ourselves and then others. When we are living from the real truth of our being without judgment or attachment to how it looks while also doing no harm to self, to others, or to life, then we are responsibly engaging what most nourishes and nurtures our unfolding life experience. Healthy Cancer operates from the accepting, loving, forgiving parental perspective starting of course with ourselves. Self-forgiveness, self-acceptance, and self-love are all foundational in healthy nurturing. It might help to look at an issue or situation that you have any judgment about and consider how this is a reflection of how you are accepting and loving yourself or not and then consider what the gifts are for you that the person or situation is bringing you in deepening your ability to truly nurture and love yourself. Often those we judge the most harshly are actually facilitating the greatest personal awakening and growth possible when we are willing to shift our perspective.

Mar 8, Wednesday. The waxing Cancer Moon is traveling inside the Sacred Hoop and reaching zodiacal alignment with the fixed star Sirius shining brilliantly in the evening sky marking the outer edge of the Sacred Hoop. Tonight the Moon is visible just to the right of the fixed stars Castor and Pollux marking the head of the twins and tomorrow night will be visible below Castor and Pollux moving toward Saturn and catching up with Saturn on March 10. Checking out the visual movement of the Moon each night shifting through the backdrop of the stars can help facilitate greater awareness of our connection to the Great Above and the grand cosmic design.

Mar 9, Thursday. Sun (18 Pisces49) trines retrograde Jupiter (18Scorpio49) always within a few days after Jupiter turns retrograde and then will trine the Sun on June 30 before it stations direct on July 6. This means Jupiter is barely moving in the sky right now indicating the Still Point is still active where past and future meet - neither from nor towards – yet existing and not existing simultaneously within the creation portal of our space/time experience. The Still Point is the shamanic edge, the shamanic journey, the shamanic initiation, deepening and expanding our experience beyond the ordinary confines of this reality. When we willingly surrender all our attachments and judgments that keep us locked into this reality the process is much smoother and easier to experience.

Mar 10, Friday. Moon conjuncts Saturn (5 Leo) and Venus (5 Aquarius) is opposite Saturn (5 Leo) reminding us of the importance of loving and forgiving ourselves. Self-forgiveness is an important first step in truly finding self-love within. Barry Elwin-Jones

<http://www.lightpaths.com> wrote an article on Self-forgiveness suggesting: Bringing our attention into our center of love locks out the negative and contradictory thoughts that pull us back and forth, never giving us peace, always promising but never delivering. To empower this belief that we are loving divine beings will bring great karmic results. Your self worth is far greater than you could ever imagine. Guilt will hold a child of God back from self-realization, and this goes against the divine plan for you. STOP IT.

The rebirth of self is imminent; be gentle with yourself. The Inner God is finding expression. The new child is fragile and innocent. Be kind and tolerant with it, it is you, God's gift to the rest of the world. You reflect the power and glory of creation. You have a right to be here in all of your glory. You stand ready to be reborn; let the river of love within take you home. No more guilt and no more pain.

To forgive yourself is to embrace God.

Mar 11, Saturday. Sun and retrograde Mercury meet (21 Pisces) beginning a new cycle of Mercury that will last until Jul 18, 2006. Mercury symbolizes our mind, our style of thinking, perception, cognition, and communication, or said another way - through what archetypal lens we perceive our reality. Mercury in Pisces operates through the feelings and deep inner knowing that is not based in logic or reason though it may actually be logical in its outward expression. When heart and mind are harmoniously synchronized in the Pisces realm then creative expression and communication are maximized. The Pisces language is more symbolic and otherworldly than the more left brained archetypes. Allowing ourselves to dream and imagine is a great way to maximize this timing.

Mar 12, Monday. The Moon moves into Virgo today calling our awareness to the mysteries held in safe keeping and passed down through the ages by the hierophants, who are the keepers and revealers of sacred knowledge and wisdom. They are also the keepers of the mysteries around the hierophanies, or the manifestations and revelations of the sacred world, including natural and constructed sacred sites with astronomical alignments tracking the seasonal cycles of Earth and Sky. As we are preparing for the Virgo Full Moon on March 14 it is a good time to remember the sacred rhythms and cycles we encounter daily including the cycles of rest and activity, growth and decline, day and night and the ongoing cycles of birth, growth, fruition, integration, death and rebirth. We also have the consistency of the monthly cycle of the Moon, the annual seasonal cycles and regular planetary cycles all with their own individual rhythm. Awareness of and participation with these outer cycles helps us to also more consciously participate with our own inner cycles.

Mar 13, Monday. The fullest rise of the Virgo Full Moon is tonight. The actual full Moon Lunar Eclipse is tomorrow afternoon so the Moon will already be waning when it rises tomorrow night. So tonight is optimum for celebrating the waxing Full Moon. Deepening our understanding of the Virgo mysteries and attending to the sacred cycles helps to shift our experience of time from a linear, secular passage to a cyclical, magical, mystical initiatory experience. There are wheels within wheels, there are patterns within patterns, there are codes within codes of love, light, sound, language, and vibration that are now being amplified for the purpose of accelerating our evolutionary experience. When we are receptive to this process, attuning to the inner planes of change then the divine codes we all carry are more easily accessed and support a growing multi-dimensional experience.

Mar 14, Tuesday. The Virgo Full Moon (24 Virgo) penumbral eclipse (only the south edge of the Moon will darken) reaches its maximum point at 3:47 pm PST and 6:47 pm EST. This Full Moon Eclipse is also closely square the transformational shamanic initiator Pluto at 26 Sagittarius. Eclipses are accelerators of experience and in the Virgo realm this has to do with the direct experience of vibrational patterns as they express in the physical manifest world. This includes the vibrational patterns of our physical bodies and how that relates not only to the Earth's vibrational grid pattern but also to the vibrational grid patterns of the entire galaxy and beyond. With Pluto located at Galactic Center and initiating a deepening awareness of our connection to the Galactic Core there has never been a better time to be receptive to greater conscious connection and experience of the inner and outer vibrational patterns remembering that we inform the mysteries as much as they inform us. This opens the Eclipse window, or cauldron, that will last until the Aries Solar Eclipse on March 29. This Eclipse Cauldron is especially intense due to the added Mercury and Jupiter Retrograde and Pluto features including its retrograde station on March 29. Even without all this Eclipse Windows usually feel like a time out time, in-between the worlds experience anyway, where we may literally feel we are being rewired, reprogrammed, and restructured at the deepest cellular and subatomic levels.

Therefore, these next few weeks are an especially important time to replenish daily by getting plenty of rest, exercising, spending time in nature, and taking time to renew your spirit in whatever ways work best for you. Drinking lots of pure living water (water is liquid light) for maximum physical hydration and continued purification, as well as taking time to embrace our deepest feelings and releasing them with love and forgiveness (when needed) helps smooth out the integration of the deep physical changes now in process. (See March 10 and 29)

Mar 15, Wednesday. Progressing through the Eclipse Window the waning Moon is now moving into Libra early this morning calling attention to the mysteries of conscious equal partnership in all our relationships. This is also the archetype of the diplomat who is willing to listen to all sides, to all the parts, to all points of view, allowing for understanding that is designed to support the needs of all the various parts. Thus the truth of each aspect is acknowledged, honored and sometimes even transformed creating a healthy space for living in right relationship, peace, harmony, and balance with all life.

Mar 16, Thursday. Jupiter (18 Scorpio) squares Neptune (18 Aquarius) Expansive Jupiter and dreamy Neptune are catalyzing possibilities that will expand our connection to and awareness of the over all big picture. Outer reality may feel confusing and uncertain as the possibilities expand. This is not a time for drastic life changing decisions unless they are prompted from a deep internal knowing. These energies have a feeling of being way beyond ordinary reality providing an excellent space and time to journey, dream, meditate or engage in any activities that inspire visionary and beyond the ordinary experiences.

Mar 17, Friday. Moon moves into Scorpio today activating the mysteries that include death and rebirth, resurrection and renewal, and empowerment through the Shamanic Journey that calls us to face the fears that disempower us. Aligning divine will and personal will is part of the Scorpio mysteries and is greatly facilitated when we are able to surrender judgment and embrace total acceptance of what IS. From this space then Scorpio becomes the master of magic and manifestation because they then are attuned to Source and are able to bring spirit into matter in ways that are passionately alive and aligned with Divine Will.

Mar 18, Saturday. Mercury (15 Pisces) square Mars (15 Gemini) Impulsive and quick Both Mars and Mercury have a tendency to be impulsive and quick. This is a time to act decisively when heart and mind are aligned otherwise it is best to allow the creative process time to unfold in ways that are heart centered and inspired.

Mar 19, Sunday. Moon conjunct Jupiter (19 Scorpio) as we enter the Equinox window exact tomorrow. Jupiter is still near the two brightest stars Zuben Algenubi (15 Scorpio) and Zuben Alshamali (19 Scorpio) in the constellation of the Scales. The Moon and Jupiter joined in the Scales are illuminating and expanding our awareness of how natural laws operate and how we can balance them with our human experience in ways that are passionately inspired. With Jupiter having stationed in the gateway of these two stars the expansive Jovian energies are further energizing the codes of life through the language of the stars. We are the stars and they are us and when we take time to tune in and visually connect with the stars and planets then even greater magic is possible.

Mar 20, Monday. The Vernal Equinox when the Sun reaches zero degrees Aries occurs at 10:26 am PST and 1:26 pm EST. Certain seasonal cycles including the Equinoxes are optimum timings for connecting with Earth's sacred sites around the planet. Doorways into the mysteries are more easily accessed during this time as the Sun activates the balance point between light and dark. This is a great time (either today or tomorrow or both) to be on the land, in a power spot that calls to you, whether that is in a forest, near a body of water, on a mountain, in a sacred site, or in your back yard. What is important is to create the time and space that supports a direct experience of the mysteries that are ready to reveal themselves to you.

It is interesting to note that the Mayan Pyramid at Chichen Itza known as Kukulcan (feathered serpent) was built in part to track the equinox Sunrise when the shadows created by the rising Sun form an undulating serpent traveling down the steps of the pyramid. There is another Mayan Spring Equinox Temple located Near Merida, Yucatan, Mexico called Dzibilchaltun (Zi-bil-chal-ton which means place with writing on Stone). At Sunrise on the Equinox, the light of the Sun passes through special openings in the temple illuminating the center of a column of stone about a hundred yards away. This phenomenon occurs only at the Equinoxes and was used by the ancient Maya to determine the exact day of the Equinox. There are many other ancient and recent places around the planet that have been built to capture the rise or set of the Sun at these seasonal gates. If you find one near you it is worth checking out as it increases your direct experience and knowledge of exactly how this magical time manifests on Earth.

http://web.axelero.hu/dob10638/english/mayan\_e.htm

It is also interesting to note that the Great Pyramid of Giza is exactly coded with the celestial mysteries of the precession of Solstices and Equinoxes. Our current understanding of the precessional cycle says it lasts precisely 25,827.5 years. The two base-diagonal angles of the pyramid taken together, along with the width of the Grand Gallery of the pyramid multiplied by pi (3.14159), and the altitude of the Great Pyramid lying above the floor of the king's Chamber multiplied by pi all equal 25,827.5 or the exact number of years of the precessional cycle. Here again is an example of As Above, So Below and a reminder that within us we carry all the codes of knowledge for transforming our reality into greater love.

(See Celebrating the Equinoxes)

Mar 21, Tuesday. The Moon moves into Sagittarius emphasizing the quest for truth and meaning, supporting a deepening investigation into our personal truth. Remembering truth is different in different states of awareness and understanding, it maybe helpful to notice what Truth you are living? Is what you believe really your essential truth or is it based on what your culture or your family expects you to believe? How has your truth changed, grown and expanded recently? Are you becoming aware that what you once believed is no longer true for you? Does this feel confusing because you don't know what your truth is now? Are you okay with not knowing, trusting and being with the evolving process as it unfolds?

Mar 22, Wednesday. Last quarter Capricorn Moon (2 Capricorn) is energizing the archetypal mysteries of the elders, the wise and ancient ones, the grandmothers and grandfathers, who know the rules, who know how spirit descends into matter and how to get things done for the greatest benefit and good of all. Moon in Capricorn is usually an excellent time for handling details, getting more organized, and creating structures that help you to do less while accomplishing all that is needed to thrive and more.

Mar 23, Thursday. Sun (4Aries32) trines retrograde Saturn (4Leo32) for the even more rapid slowing of Saturn before it stations direct on April 5 at 4Leo23 moving only 9 minutes over the next couple of weeks. Conscious attention to the still point within this cycle of change helps to bring focus and guidance to the actions that will support the changes that are ready to come into form once Saturn goes direct. Saturn in Leo is intended to support the process of structuring even greater self-love into our personal experience, helping us to really know "We are the Ones we have been waiting for." (See Mar 10 for Saturn self-forgiveness and Mar 4 for the Still Point Poem)

Mar 24, Friday. The waning Moon enters Aquarius bringing through the mysteries of the cosmic revolutionary who experiments with innovative ideas intended to accelerate growth and consciousness. This is a good time to question the rules and structure of your life locating and releasing the beliefs that are limiting and restrictive while also embracing the changes that support your freest expression of who you truly are.

Mar 25, Saturday. Mercury stations direct (13 Pisces), Mars (19 Gemini) trines Neptune (19 Aquarius), Moon conjuncts Venus and Neptune all at 19 Aquarius. Neptune's job is to deepen our intuition and to inspire our connection to "the field of dreams" (a great Neptunian movie by the way) within the infinite mind of the divine. Mystical Union and psychic connection with this field of all possibilities is easier when we trust our inner knowing – knowing what we know without question and often beyond the confines of logic and reason. This is because Neptune and Pisces operate in the Celestial Realms. Today's aspects including Mercury's station direct have a time out of time essence where changes manifest quickly when we are prepared to act (especially when we act decisively as Mars directs) on our inspiration while also embracing the unknown.

Mar 26, Sunday. The waning Moon entered Pisces yesterday encouraging us to dream our biggest dreams imaging and or "pretending" that they already exist. Energy follows our thoughts, words, and actions. Imagine it, decree it so, act decisively with gratitude, and know it is already manifesting.

Mar 27, Monday. Moon conjuncts Uranus and Mercury. What revolutionary messages are coming in to shift your reality assemblage point freeing up energy to actively live and express your divinely inspired soul purpose? One way to begin is by imaging and or "pretending" that they already exist. It is time to take action that is new and innovative in ways that support manifestation of our dreams bringing them from the metaphysical realm (the realm of ideas and dreams) into the physical (the realm of tangible experience).

Mar 28, Tuesday. Moon is moving back into Aries today suggesting it is time to take inspired decisive action toward any cause you feel committed to furthering. It might be the cause of improving your health, or making a difference in the environment in some way. Regardless of what it is - now is the time to act keeping in mind that we are also entering the New Moon Solar Eclipse window that will be exact tomorrow accelerating our experience of increasing solar light energies that are supporting a whole new vibrational experience shifting the old collective programs from "the love of power to the power of love" as Earth continues through her ascension process.

Mar 29, Wednesday. New Moon Solar Eclipse (8Aries35) Pluto Stations Retrograde at Galactic Center (27 Sagittarius – see March 14). This Solar Eclipse in Aries has many manifesting possibilities within the Pluto Retrograde Still Point (See March 4). Traditionally Aries is considered the archetype of the warrior, which has both its healthy and shadowed expression. The shadow of Aries has been to control and dominate or gain power over others for personal glory and gain while denying freedom and the right to resources that support a thriving life experience for everyone. Healthy Aries on the other hand is the defender of the Cosmic Order or Divine Order of life protecting everyone's right to thrive and fulfill his or her purpose. This Aries North Node (current and future destiny activation) New Moon Solar Eclipse quickens whatever we are consciously or unconsciously seeding through our thoughts, words and actions. The accelerated solar light radiations quicken the purification and restructuring process already underway stepping up our personal and planetary vibrational experience. With this in mind it is likely that world and personal events will intensify, reflecting this purification process intended to clear the old forms and old programs so the new programs can become a manifest reality. (See March 13 and 14)

Mar 30, Thursday. Still well within the potency of the Solar Eclipse Window the Moon is moving into Taurus today completing over the next couple of days varying aspects to the fixed Grand Cross (or the signs of self-interest including Saturn in Leo, Chiron and Neptune in Aquarius, Jupiter in Scorpio and Moon in Taurus). These events are indicating major shifts in our planetary space-time vibrational grid. A whole new vibrational Heaven on Earth energy field as a pleasurable and beautiful kinesthetic, practically grounded experience is being birthed.

Mar 31, Friday. The Taurus Moon is triggering more aspects of the Grand Cross today focusing on the mysteries of sensual beauty, intimacy, the art of receivership and the mysteries of sacred pleasure as our divine birthright. Clarissa Pinkola Estes quotes the Koran in her book Women Who Run With The Wolves saying "You will be called upon to account for all the permitted pleasures in life you did not enjoy while on Earth." For many, the "permitted" pleasures are a process of self-discovery going beyond current cultural judgments and of course include "do no harm" to any aspect of life, but rather joyfully celebrate and support the unfolding mysteries. This is a reminder that it serves no useful purpose, Earthly or Divine, to forgo the sacred pleasures or sacred gifts of life. Receiving the gifts of life with gratitude completes the sacred circuitry within our being activating more fully our true divine nature.
