

September 2002 Celestial Timings

By Carolyn Brent

COVENANT OF TRUTH

*I am a planetary citizen
Honoring the life of the earth*

*I honor the sacredness of all life
And all humanity as my family*

*I am a child of freedom
A unique, creative being of spirit*

*I embrace my darkness
And celebrate my light*

*I choose the path of truth
For truth is the purest expression of love*

*In truth lies my power and my freedom
I claim this now*

I speak my truth without fear

*I listen to another's truth without judgment
I am a clear voice of Truth calling my community and nation to the path of:
Justice over revenge
Peace over conflict
Love over fear
Beauty over chaos
Honor over corruption*

*In affirming the highest truth of our being
Is the awakening of the new humanity
The doorway to the new world*

*I step through this doorway now
And extend my hand to those who would follow*

*From untruth I come into truth
From darkness I come into light*

From death I come into immortality.

NASA Science News...During the first week of September, the space station will emerge from Earth's shadow just before sunrise over several major US cities, including Washington DC, Philadelphia and San Francisco. The spacecraft, suddenly brightening like a supernova, will be worth waking up to see. Story at http://science.nasa.gov/headlines/y2002/28aug_sunrise.htm?list608224

Space Weather News for August 31, 2002 <http://www.spaceweather.com> Step outside tonight around 8:00 p.m. and look west. That bright light not far above the horizon is the planet Venus. Very nearby is the blue star Spica--the brightest star in the constellation Virgo. Spica lies 260 light years from Earth and shines 2100 times brighter than the Sun. Because it's so far away, though, Spica seems dimmer than Venus. The pair are easy to spot even before the sky fades to black. Between now and late September, Venus will grow brighter every night--and that means it's a good time to look for Venus pillars and Venusdogs. Meanwhile on the Sun...Emerging near the Sun's northwestern limb, a new sunspot (numbered 95) poses a threat for major flares. On Friday it unleashed a brief but powerful X1-class solar flare; the explosion was not Earth-directed.

As we approach the one year anniversary of Sep 11 here are some important events to note...

This announcement comes from <http://www.worldpeace.org>
Igniting the Spirit of World Peace

An important anniversary is approaching on September 11, 2002: ...A memorial Peace Pole will be presented to Mayor Mike Bloomberg of New York City to honor this day in the spirit of peace. In addition, prayers from peace-loving people all over the world will accompany this Peace Pole – a call to shift the energy from fear to love, from war to peace. Prayers, messages, poems, drawings and other expressions of a heart of peace will be presented to Mayor Bloomberg. Let us show the Mayor that the best memorial to those who perished on September 11th would be a commitment to a world of peace. This URL takes you to a site where you can post your own prayer for peace and it will be added to the Peace Pole being presented to NYC on Sept 11. <http://www.worldpeace.org/igniting.html>

Great Spirit, thank you for your love! Thank you for this life! Thank you for your wisdom and guidance in helping me/us to choose love, remembering we are all One in your Spirit, One in your love, One in Wholeness and One in the Grace of Forgiveness and Peace. And so it is!

Kiara Windrider author of Doorway to Eternity: A Guide to Planetary Ascension along with Moirra Timms and her book Beyond Prophecies and Predictions alerted us to the Sep 17, 2001 Day of Truth indicated by the ending of the 6,000 year timeline in the Great Pyramid of Giza. (see Sep 17, 2001 Celestial Timings Archives) Kiara has set up a website <http://www.dayoftruth.com> where he is proposing this year...on Sep 15, 2002, “the Sunday closest to the anniversary of the first Day of Truth on September 17, 2001, is for people to gather together to share our common truth. Let us come together as families, groups and communities around the world in celebration of our awakening truth, releasing old patterns of human relating, and opening to the possibilities of a quantum shift in planetary consciousness.” The introductory quote is a statement celebrating this timing and if you feel aligned you can sign the above covenant here <http://www.dayoftruth.com>

Week Of Sep 1-7 Week of Aug 30-Sep 5 This week marks the waning last quarter phase of the Moon in Gemini. In the Hero or Heroine's quest this Moon phase marks the crossing of the return threshold to the place where the journey began, returning with the gifts and boons gained for synthesis and integration. It also signals the time to begin looking at the new seeds to plant in the next cycle beginning with the next New Moon Sep 6 in Virgo.

Sep 1, Sunday. The waning Gemini Moon conjuncts Saturn (28 Gemini) (see Sep 30) before going Void of Course for about 4 hours and then shifting into Cancer crossing the Summer Solstice marker in the sky mid to late afternoon or early evening depending on your time zone. This timing reminds us of the importance of rest and relaxation for the purpose of regenerating and nurturing ourselves. (See Sep 28)

Sep 2, Monday. Venus is still shining brightly near the fixed blue star Spica in constellation of the Virgin priestess. Spica reminds us that "As we sew, So shall we reap" and has the ability to enhance lucid dreaming states, as well as psychic abilities such as psychometry and levitation through pure mind energy and remote viewing. Spica also brings the principle of oneness into consciousness for humanity. (see Starlight Elixirs and Cosmic Vibrational Healing by Michael Smulkis and Fred Rubinfeld <http://hilarion.com/stars.html>). Venus in Libra near Spica intends to deepen our relationship with the oneness of all life. Visually tuning into Venus and Spica provides a potent direct experience of these energies. Look to the brightest star in the western sky after Sunset that is Venus, slightly above and to the right of Venus is the blue star Spica. Much dimmer Mercury is to the lower right of Venus and might be visible just after Sunset if its not already lost in the glow of the setting Sun depending on the horizon line. FYI Mercury officially disappears from the evening sky around Sep 21.

Sep 3, Tuesday. The waning Moon moves into Leo this morning reminding us that the reality of our being is divine, nothing less. As the Moon passes through a sign it transmits the lineage of those archetypal mysteries available to us when we are open to receive them. Taking time now to celebrate our divine essence through responsibly discovering and demonstrating radical, radiant self-love, self-confidence and self-acceptance is an effective way to engage this timing.

Sep 4, Wednesday. Waning Moon meets with Jupiter (7Leo) in the early morning sky. (Moon is rising around 3 am in Arizona). Moon and Jupiter meet once each month. While Jupiter is in Leo over this next year the Moon further activates the Leo Mysteries that Jupiter is already expanding. One way to maximize this timing is by committing to ways that further facilitate your experience of truly loving yourself, and honoring your divine essence. It is also helpful to listen to your heart knowing from the place of love and acceptance. Asking for guidance from your heart knowing and then following that guidance facilitates amazing synchronicities that will support your practice of deepening self-love. Forgiveness of self and others is an essential step. One way to begin is by asking with sincere intent for forgiveness for yourself and for all others in your life that have ever harmed or hurt you in anyway. Through the power and grace of forgiveness, forgiving the unforgivable, whether it is ourselves or others being forgiven, love is liberated and with that release freedom, peace, power and new life are available. True self-love begins.

Week of Sep 5 – 11 A New Moon occurs about every 29 and ½ days when the Moon aligns with the Sun from the Earth's perspective, thus the Moon is invisible due to its close proximity to the Sun. The New Moon is a conception point, a time when farmers plant their seeds, or a new adventure (or initiation) begins. Working with a clear intent during the New Moon window (which begins the day before the exact New Moon and concludes the day after the exact new Moon) is a wonderful timing for collectively planting seeds, or prayers, for wholeness, healing, harmony, balance, peace, and so on. As the crescent Moon increases in light, growing bigger each night, it symbolizes the growth of the seeds planted at the New Moon.

Sep 5, Thursday. Today begins the Virgo New Moon window and the Moon moves into Virgo late tonight or early tomorrow morning depending on your time zone. The Virgo mysteries express as Spider Woman who weaves the web, who weaves the pattern of life. New Moon's are an ending and beginning of the Moon cycle. What patterns within the web are damaged or no longer serve the overall pattern or web of life? Is it time to reweave parts of the web or to weave a whole new web? Venus (28 Libra) is trining Saturn (28 Gemini) further supporting the sense that it is time to do some house cleaning through examining the structure and form of our lives and making changes where necessary.

Sep 6, Friday. Later today marks the exact Virgo New Moon. This is an excellent time for seeding or reseedng our personal and collective intent to live the TRUTH of who we truly are through the grace of forgiveness that supports the experience of abundance and peace for all. (See this month's Intro Covenant of Truth quote)

Sep 7, Saturday. Sun (14Virgo56) squares Pluto (14Sagittarius56) in a last quarter square before Sun and Pluto conjunct in December. This last quarter square marks the acceleration of Pluto in its movement through the sky from the Earth's perspective. Pluto stationed direct Aug 26 at 14Sagittarius54 moving only two minutes in the last two weeks. The Sun Pluto square indicates Pluto is speeding up and the Sun's relationship to Pluto illuminates the shadow including the fears, judgments and forgotten or denied skills and abilities we may carry. Energizing and embracing the power of the light of forgiveness while also embracing the truth of our being helps to transform these shadowed elements into our greatest gifts bringing to light their wealth as the medicine we carry, because after all Pluto is also known as the God of Wealth.

Sep 8, Sunday. The Moon entered Libra last night where it remains until the night of the Sep 9 energizing the mysteries of conscious equal partnership with ourselves and each other. These mysteries recognize that no one person is more important or less important than any other. We are all equal in value, as are all the archetypes and ways of being in the world. Venus also entered Scorpio yesterday where she remains until January of 2003 due to the Venus Retrograde that starts in October. Venus in Scorpio is linked with the mysteries of death and rebirth and the aspect of the Goddess (Kali, Hecate, Pele, Cerridwen, the Cretan Snake Goddess, etc.) that destroys what is necessary and timely, making room for something new to birth, acting from compassion, love and wisdom in alignment with the natural cycles and rhythms of life. Finally it is worth noting that Chiron is stationing direct today. (see Sept 9)

Sep 9, Monday. (9/9) Yesterday Chiron station direct at 3Capricorn13 shifting the direction of the current initiatory energy of the Shamanic Healer from a deep inner process to a more external manifestation. One possibility of Chiron in Capricorn is that it supports us in recognizing and transforming our personal and collective doing addiction. Noticing what the motivation is behind what you do helps to determine if your doing is from addiction. Are you doing to please others, to feel a sense of value and worth, to feel productive and useful by society's standards, or because it's what you feel you must do to survive, or because you are avoiding feeling your feelings and looking at your own personal life? Or are you doing what you do because you love it and it is bringing you joy in a way that is balanced and healthy. If you identify yourself as doing addicted, then you can begin to create new more conscious ways of engaging the doing process by releasing attachments to outcome. The ideal is to do because you love what you do in the moment and not because you think you might receive an additional reward at a later time.

The waxing Moon enters Scorpio today and conjuncts Venus (2 Scorpio), late tonight or early tomorrow morning depending on your time zone, marking the passage of Venus (Inanna) through the 7th gate out of the underworld, marking her retrieval of her crown symbolizing the reclaiming of her connection to Spirit, or to Godhood, or Inanna's case Goddesshood. The Moon is approaching Venus tonight in the western sky after sunset.

Sep 10, Tuesday. Jupiter (9Leo) is approaching an exact opposition to Neptune (9 Aquarius) occurring sometime tomorrow. Expansive Jupiter is magnifying the idealistic dreaming energy of Neptune. Meditating upon the Sabian symbols for these degrees is a helpful way of tuning into this timing. The Sabian Symbols are interpretations of the energies of each degree of the 360 degree circle as it relates to the astrological signs. (for more see <http://www.shamanicastrology.com/articles17.htm>) The Sabian symbol for 9 Aquarius is A Flag Is Seen Turning into An Eagle. The interpretation is "the dynamic incorporation of new social values in individuals who exemplify the spiritual potential and the greatest significance of these values" The Sabian Symbol for 9 Leo is Glass Blowers Shape Beautiful Vases With Their Controlled Breathing. The interpretation is "the need to involve one's most spiritual and vital energies in the creative act if it is to produce significant and beautiful new forms."

Sep 11, Wednesday. Waxing Moon enters Sagittarius energizing the mysteries of the spiritual quest intended to expand self-understanding, knowledge, and the meaning of life, while also discovering new ways of experiencing the realm of spirit. Although the Moon is in the sign of Sagittarius it is also entering the constellation of the Scorpion and Ophiucus, the Serpent Healer. Noting where the Moon is the next couple of nights locates these stars for visually tuning in and receiving greater understanding of the mysteries unfolding here. (See Difference between Signs and Constellations)

Week Of Sep 12 - 19. Noting the three day window of each Moon phase the Sagittarius First Quarter Moon energy begins Sep 12 and is exact Sep 13. The Moon is directly overhead as the sunsets the evening of Sep 13. This waxing half full Moon phase represents the balance between light and dark. It is also the most visible rapid growth phase of the Moon indicating a good timing for putting our ideas and plans into action. This Moon phase is also intended to bring our conscious awareness to the threshold of initiation that accelerates the growth process. Each night until Sep 21 the Moon waxes or increases in light appearing closer and closer to the Eastern Horizon as the Sunsets. The Full Moon is rising around the time the Sun is setting providing a direct experience of an opposition.

Sep 12, Thursday. The waning Sagittarius Moon appears near the bright red star Antares tonight, marking the heart of the Scorpion, also seen in some cultures as the heart of the dragon or serpent. Antares is a stargate portal accessing the transformative energies of the oracle designed to expand awareness and meaning in ways that support the fulfillment of our earthly journey. The Moon is a transmitter, transmitting the lineage of these mysteries through the Sagittarian energies of the ever-expanding quest for truth and meaning. These images are supported by the charge of the Delphic Oracle that says, "know thy self." Visually connecting with or meditating upon the Moon and Antares provides a direct experience of these mysteries and what they mean for you personally at this time.

Sep 13, Friday. The Sagittarius First Quarter Moon (21 Sagittarius) accelerates the quest for knowing, experiencing and expressing the truth of who we are. The messages of the psychic children support this quest because they remind us to pretend our deepest truth is our reality, pretend we are living a Golden Age of Heaven on Earth, pretend we are radiant and shining divine beings, and pretend the full experience and expression of our divinity is our true experience here and now. The children tell us: "When you pretend something that is true, then you immediately become that Truth." Sagittarius is the archetype most committed to the quest for truth. So with the intention of this rapid accelerated timing and our attention to the truth while also pretending we are fully living our divine Truth, then that divine Truth quickly becomes our manifest reality. <http://www.topica.com/lists/ThomasMessages>

Sep 14, Saturday. Today the Moon crosses the intersection of the ecliptic (path the planets follow) and the Milky Way where the December Solstice Sun rises near Galactic Center. There is only one time period in a nearly 26,000 year cycle this event can happen heralding the Turning of

the Ages. Once each month the Moon passes by here illuminating the ancient and future mysteries available when we are open to receive them. Mercury stations retrograde (13Libra13) today and remains retrograde until Oct 6. (See Sep 15 and 27)

Sep 15, Mercury symbolizes the alchemical magic of the mind, how we process information, how we perceive our reality and how we communicate or creatively express who we are in the world. Mercury is also noted for its quickness and speed as it completes one orbit around the Sun in 88 days, but from the Earth's perspective Mercury retraces its path across the sky approximately every 115 to 120 days slowing down and giving us an opportunity to witness Mercury's behind the scenes mysteries from an intuitive right brained perspective. This three-week retrograde (until Oct 6) is excellent for slowing down and engaging right-brained creative activities, taking more time for inner healing processes, and for completing projects. Also it is wise (speaking from experience of myself and others) to make sure you have a current back-up for all your important computer data. It is also helpful to remember to allow extra time for left brained type communication processes to take place, and if you must sign legal papers be extra attentive to what you are signing. Remember Days Of Truth celebration today...see intro for info. (See Sep 27)

Sep 16, Monday. Waxing Moon moves into Aquarius transmitting the mysteries of the cosmic revolutionary, whose intent is to ultimately revolutionize conscious awareness through the living expressed truth of our divinity. Aquarius energy is committed to its own unique path of self-expression, questioning what is and not settling for limitations of the status quo. Aquarius has the ability to step back, see the cosmic overview and then forgive the unforgivable, letting go of all the injustices and pain that limit the experience of true freedom. This revolutionary energy pushes for the changes that are cathartic, liberating and evolutionary.

Sep 17, Tuesday. Retrograde Neptune (8Aquarius28) is still opposite Jupiter (9Leo50) and both will soon be squared by Venus (7Scorpio18). The Sabian Symbol for Venus right now is A Calm Lake Bathed In Moonlight. The interpretation is "A quiet openness to higher inspiration." Also, Venus is currently conjunct the fixed star Khambalia, in the constellation of the Virgin Priestess. Eric Morse indicates in his book The Living Stars: that Khambalia is linked with "secret knowledge". Page Bryant suggests in her book Starwalking that Khambalia "is another star that serves as a channel for peace energy to manifest on Earth." While Venus is accessing the "secret knowledge" of Khambalia she is also reaching her last quarter square to Neptune, a planet that strongly connects to the mystical knowledge and experience of life, and a first quarter square to Jupiter, the planet of magnification and expansion. This line-up offers highly inspired opportunities expressing most easily through sensitive artistic expression for the purpose of accessing the mystical knowledge of transformation through death and rebirth carried deep within our DNA. (See Sep 24)

Sep 18, Wednesday. Moon moves into Pisces this morning transmitting the mysteries of universal love and the qualities of inspired dreaming that capture our imagination. The Piscean mystical dreamers dream their reality into expression. Selflessly, Pisces finds their greatest joy in expressing dedicated compassionate service to all sentient life, while also seeking mystical union with the divine. The next couple of days are excellent for dreaming or imaging our most cherished dreams and feeling them as a manifest reality.

Sep 19, Thursday. Today marks the exact Venus (Scorpio) Neptune (9 Aquarius) square with Jupiter (11 Leo) still in aspect magnifying these energies. The Sabian Symbol for 9 Scorpio is A Dentist At Work. The interpretation is "overcoming the negative results of social practices and ego-cravings." The Sabian symbol for 9 Aquarius is A Flag Is Seen Turning into An Eagle. The interpretation is "the dynamic incorporation of new social values in individuals who exemplify the spiritual potential and the greatest significance of these values." The Sabian Symbol for Jupiter at 11 Leo is Children Play On A Swing hanging From The Branches Of A Huge Oak Tree. The interpretation is "the power of tradition as it shelters the beginnings of individual self-expression." Meditating on these images helps support conscious dreaming and manifestation of safe and healthy individual self-expression.

Week of Sep 20 - 28 This week features the Pisces Full Moon on Sep 21 (28 Pisces). The Full Moon window is three days including the day before and after the exact Full Moon. This timing symbolizes fulfillment, or fruition when the seeds of earlier cycles are reaching their Full Bloom. Thus, each Full Moon reminds us of the seeds we may have coming to maturity, to their fullness, to the place where the fruits or gifts are received. The annual Pisces Full Moon helps deepen the fulfillment of the dreaming process.

Sep 20, Friday. Today begins the Pisces Full Moon window. The Moon will rise waxing towards Full tonight. By tomorrow evening's Moonrise the Moon will have past its fullest point sometime earlier in the day. The Pisces mysteries are linked to our ability to dream our dreams into being. We are only limited by our imagination and beliefs. Anything we can conceive, dream, imagine and believe is possible to achieve and experience. This occurs when we clearly imagine a desired reality, while also confidently knowing and expecting that what we are imagining is moving into manifestation even as we begin to imagine it.

Sep 21, Saturday. The Pisces Full Moon (28Pisces25) with Sun at 28Virgo25 shows up in square to Saturn at 28Gemini43 bringing to light any emotional stress due to current structures or beliefs that do not ultimately support your emotional needs. What adjustments help support and respect your internal and external emotional needs for security and comfort? Patience and an ability to look carefully at your true priorities is important in creating new structures that support these needs. This Chinese Proverb seems to capture the Pisces Full Moon energy...The first step to better times, is to imagine them. Moon is also moving into action oriented Aries where committed decisive action supports what we are imagining and desiring to bring forth.

Sep 22, Sunday. September Equinox The equinoxes are the seasonal time of balance and harmony when the days and nights are equal in length. During the equinoxes, the Earth's auric or magnetic field is affected by the Sun's alignment with the Earth's equator. Twice each year, at the equinoxes, the Sun rises and sets exactly over the equator. The equinox solar affect produces a reduction in the magnetic field of the Earth, providing easier access to other dimensions beginning around 24 hours before, and ending around 24 hours after the exact Equinox point. Doorways or thresholds into the mysteries are more easily accessed during equinoxes and when we consciously engage this timing we are taking advantage of the opportunity to further activate our own experience of these sacred timings and what they have to offer us. Sun crosses the equinox marker at 9:56 pm Pacific Daylight Time. (Please adjust for your time zone)

Sep 23, Monday Still well within the equinox window the Moon is entering Taurus late tonight suggesting this is a great time for appreciating and further imagining "the garden" of abundance, of beauty, of sensual sacred pleasure, where our hearts sing with gratitude for the gifts of life, love and joy.

Sep 24, Tuesday. Venus (11 Scorpio) is square Jupiter (11 Leo) reaching its first quarter square since Jupiter and Venus met in the evening sky last May inside the Sacred Hoop. Neptune in Aquarius is forming a T-square and the Moon moves in later today to form a Grand cross. These are intensified energies for transformational change particularly how it relates to the feminine journey of the wild woman sorceress who is learning how to access her own inner source, guidance and intuition irregardless of the seeming logic or illogic of external factors, trusting her source and manifesting her magic in ways that are most beneficial and supportive to all life. This might be considered a make it or break it aspect, where the optimum scenario is something new is sourced and brought into manifestation. (See Sep 17)

Sep 25, Wednesday. The Nodal axis is moving into alignment with Aldebaran (10 Gemini) and Antares (10 Sagittarius). The South Node is aligning with Aldebaran, the eye of the bull and watcher of east. The North Node is aligning with Antares the heart of the scorpion and the watcher of the west. The South Node aligned with the heart of the Scorpion accesses the wisdom of heart knowing that supports an inspired vision of the future symbolized by the North Node aligned with the eye of the Bull. This timing provides a magical window of opportunity for deepening the wisdom gained through listening to our heart-knowing for the intuitive guidance to enact and manifest our visions of the future.

Sep 26, Thursday. Waxing Moon moves into Gemini transmitting the mysteries of the coyote trickster who reminds us not to take things too seriously. These mysteries take us beyond rational, linear logic, seeing the humor in life and creatively seeking fun ways to express it. Creativity is Gemini's essence. Now is a time to creatively socialize and have fun.

Sep 27, Friday. Sun conjuncts retrograde Mercury (5 Libra) marking the beginning of a new synodic cycle of Mercury emphasizing the mysteries of conscious equal partnership for the next 115 to 120 days. Paying attention to the messages of partnership and relationship now communicating through the many realms and dimensions Mercury accesses so easily, supports greater understanding and ability to creatively express and experience conscious partnership with ourselves, each other and all of life when we are aligned with the intent and engaging this process as an opportunity to deepen our understanding and experience of all of our relationships. (See Sep 15)

Sep 28, Saturday. The Moon is crossing the galactic plane in the area of the sky that currently marks the June Solstice point of zero Cancer inside the Sacred Hoop. There is only one time period in 26,000 years that this Solstice can align in this area of the sky at the center of the Sacred Hoop where the Ecliptic and the Milky Way intersect. That time is now. The Moon passes by here once each month illuminating and energizing a new awareness, a new matrix, a New Heaven and a New Earth, as we are imagining it now, based on our conscious relationship to this turning of the great wheel of time. Thus what we imagine and hold in consciousness is creating our new reality. (See Sep 1)

Week of Sep 29 – Oct 6 This week marks the last quarter phase of the Moon in Cancer. In the Hero or Heroine's quest this Moon phase is the crossing of the return threshold back into the world they left, returning with the gifts and boons gained during the journey. This is the time of the final harvest, where the plant begins its death process, preparing the seeds for the next cycle. During this next week the Moon continues to wane. This symbolizes the completion phase of the integration process of the current journey. It also signals the time to begin looking at the new seeds to plant in the next cycle beginning with the next New Moon.

Sep 29, Sunday. This Last quarter Moon with Sun at 6 Libra and Moon at 6 Cancer encourages the integration of the concepts and practices of self-care as the first step to truly nurturing and creating a safe space of peaceful acceptance for ourselves and others.

Sep 30, Monday. Saturn at almost 29 degrees Gemini is slowing down to station retrograde on Oct 1. Saturn is currently transiting zodiacally in alignment with the constellation of Auriga, the Charioteer and is in closest zodiacal alignment with the fixed star Menkalinan associated with the shoulder or arm holding the reins of the chariot. "In mythology and legend the chariot is often linked with the ego. The chariot does not exist except as an assembly of its component parts, and if these parts are considered individually then the chariot ceases to exist...The charioteer is the very symbol of calm, self-control and mastery of passions...He is reason confronting the fiery horses of our instincts and passions with firmness and watchfulness.... He is the one to control the team of the divided soul, pulling in opposite directions, and his calm, relaxed seriousness symbolizes inner balance achieved by the tension between opposing forces. The hand holding the reins perfectly symbolizes the knot which draws together spiritual and physical strength." <http://www.winshop.com.au/annew/alphabet1.htm> Saturn's transit and station here suggests it is time to note our attachment to personal and collective ego issues. The ego is defined by Webster's as: one of the three divisions of the psyche in psychoanalytic theory that serves as the organized conscious mediator between the person and reality especially by functioning both in the perception of and adaptation to reality. The Superego is defined as: one of the three divisions of the psyche in psychoanalytic theory that is only partly conscious, represents internalization of parental conscience and the rules of society, and functions to reward and punish through a system of moral attitudes, conscience, and a sense of guilt. Saturn symbolizes our ability to formalize our reality through our personal and collective beliefs. Collective conscious change occurs when enough individuals release the hold of the current collective belief systems, while also imagining and energizing a new morphogenic field of conscious change based in cooperation, love, gratitude and harmony with all life. This is quite different than the current morphogenic field that is based in competition, fear, guilt, and an external hierarchy we must answer to for either reward or punishment in this life or the next. True beneficial changes are established and maintained in the collective field of our belief systems when we reach critical mass as described by the 100th monkey effect. This current Saturn transit indicates we have the necessary support for the establishment of a new form or collective system of operation based in cooperation and love when enough people are choosing this reality.
