Who Are the Grandmothers Among Us?

You might be a Grandmother if you model elder wisdom and are concerned with our transition into the New Earth where humanity honors the Earth and future generations

Beyond Age: Grandmothers are all ages!
Were you or is a child you love
“Wise Beyond Your Years?”

Beyond Gender: Though they hold feminine qualities, Grandmothers defy gender roles! For example boys and men can embody Grandmother wisdom!

Beyond having grandchildren: Many of us have acted in a loving elder role with others whether we have grandchildren or not.

Some women who have grand children do not truly express Wise Grandmother qualities.

Capricorn and the Circle of Grandmothers

Within the Shamanic Astrology Paradigm Capricorn, is a culture-bearer sign, that has been holding the distortions of the Patriarchy.

At the Turning of the Ages the essence of Capricorn is being remembered as Feminine as it is after all an Earth sign.

When we engage the Capricorn Mysteries we are in service to the Circle of Grandmothers, whose mission is to restore a human culture in harmony with the Earth and the next seven (or several) generations.

In 2004, the Indigenous Council of Thirteen Grandmothers came together for the first time. The Circle of Grandmothers was brought to life in a literal, embodied way. This is when humanity most needs Capricorn Grandmother Wisdom fulfilling an ancient prophecy of peace and plenty for all when the Wisdom of the Grandmothers is again honored and welcomed.

Why Is Grandmother Wisdom an Important Part of 2020 Visioning?

In 2020, The Great Planetary Alignment of Saturn, Jupiter and Pluto in Capricorn is all about Grandmother and Elder Wisdom.

The Circle of Grandmothers are at the helm of this Great Turning of the Ages, hospicing the Death of the Old Culture and Midwifing the New Earth.

By attuning to our Grandmother Guides and the Grandmother Wisdom residing within each of us, we will be powerfully guided and strengthened in our work to vision and create new sustainable structures and culture to replace the dissolving cultures from before.

The Grandmothers Questions To Us...

- What is the impact of the Legacy you are leaving for this world? Is it sustainable, does it create beauty?
- Does it empower people to be who they really are?
- Is it kind, loving and forgiving?
- Are you creatively communicating your Legacy in joyful, fun and loving ways?
- Are you helping to restore your sacred relationship with the Earth, inspiring others to do the same?
- Are you wisely caring for your body your personal physical temple that you are living in in this life?
- How does what you do affect your children, your children's children and/or any children you know and the generations that will follow?
- Are your actions supportive to the Earth, to all those around you, to those who follow in your footsteps?
- Are you stepping up to consider how important taking loving inspired action is for you, the Earth and the generations to follow?
- Are you calling on the wisdom of your ancestors helping to transform their trauma if there is any, changing the legacy going forward so that it's not old patterns of competition - killing off our competition - killing off our world - killing off anything that feels threatening - whether figuratively or literally.
- Do you have the Courage to do what feels most loving supportive and kind even when it goes against the status quo?

The Grandmothers Final Questions

Are you taking steps to change your perspective on who you are and the gifts you bring to this life?

Are you willing to cultivate awareness around the ways you get triggered or hooked into an emotional response that puts you in survival mode?

The Grandmothers Remind Us:

Awareness is the first step to changing your point of view and when you change your point of view you change your life.

When you become aware of fear driving your choices are you willing to make conscious choices that are sustainable for your life and all those connected to you?

Asking the Grandmothers for Support Healing Loved Ones in Crisis

Ask the Grandmothers of loved ones (friends, family tribe) to be with them when they are experiencing a healing crisis. You might be surprised by who shows up!

Tami's friend Liora was in the hospital undergoing brain surgery. Tami asked her grandmothers to be with her. Liora is Jewish and she had several beautiful Jewish Grandmothers fussing over her, holding her, giving her strength and healing.

When Tami's brother was undergoing liver surgery, he had Japanese Grandmothers show up, even though he is a white man.

It makes sense he has a Japanese spiritual lineage as he is an engineer who values precision, honor, technology and linear values. Plus he was always drawn to Samurai culture as a young man.

The Iroquois Confederacy and the U.S. Destiny

In 1142 a Total Solar Eclipse swept across Canada and the Northeastern United States.

Soon after, the Iroquois Confederacy was formed. The Confederacy was formed of five previously warring Nations: the Mohawk, Onandoga, Oneida, Cayuga, and Seneca. They were brought together under the counsel of the Peacemaker, who helped them develop the Great Law of Peace.

In 1987, the United States Senate acknowledged that the Great Law of Peace of the Iroquois Nations served as a model for the Constitution of the United States. (U.S. S. Con. Res. 76, 2 Dec. 1987).

The Iroquois Confederacy and the U.S. Destiny

The Great Law of Peace includes: freedom of speech, freedom of religion, the right of women to participate in government, separation of powers, checks and balances within government.

A government “of the people, by the people and for the people,”
Three branches of government: two houses and a grand counsel,
A Women’s Council of Wise Grandmothers, the Iroquois equivalent of our Supreme Court - settled disputes and judged legal violations.

The Iroquois Confederacy and U.S. Destiny

The Seventh Generation principle: The Constitution of the Iroquois Confederacy states that chiefs must consider the impact of their decisions for seven generations into the future.

The role of women: Clan mothers choose candidates [who are male] as sachems [political leaders]. The women maintain ownership of land and homes, and exercise veto power over any council action that may result in war. The women have the power to impeach and expel any leader who conducts himself improperly or loses the confidence of the electorate; then the women choose a new leader.

From the U.S. Constitution and the Great Law of Peace by Molly Larkin

The Framers of the United States Constitution (all men) were warned if they left this out it would eventually result in major trouble for the nation.

Jigonhsasee: Mother of Nations

Jigonhsasee was a co-founder, along with The Great Peacemaker and Hiawatha, of the Haudenosaunee (Iroquois) Confederacy.

The Great Peacemaker called her New Face because "it is in your countenance that a New Mind is manifest" and that out of the "womb of the new mind" new nations will be born.

She hosted warriors from the warring tribes and so her home became a kind of "United Nations" and she would resolve disputes and was selected to appoint council leaders, thus she was in essence the first Clan Mother.

Planting the Seeds to Restore the Original Spiritual Blueprint for the U.S./Turtle Island

The Total Solar Eclipse August 21, 2017 with its impact on the United States, was an opportunity for us to “Reset” the Spiritual Blueprint of this country Guided by Indigenous/ Grandmother Values

In Shamanic Astrology, a Total Solar Eclipse is most simply understood as a “Super New Moon” or Mega New Moon where Intentions are Amplified.

This was a North Node “progressive” Eclipse, designed to activated Our Destiny by Re-Aligning with Our Soul’s Original Intent. Many of us planted and now EMBODY those seeds!

The Cave of Initiation

Cayelin's March 2006 Dream

There was a cave. I knew it was a cave of initiation - only to be entered with the help of Sekhmet.

I couldn't imagine how to enter the cave myself so I turned to walk away. For some reason I feel compelled to turn as if someone was calling my name. When I turned I saw Sekhmet standing in an ethereal, mystical, ghostly kind of light, as if she was between the worlds.

She was beckoning me to return to the entrance of the cave. Upon arrived at the entrance she waved her arm before the opening of the cave as it lit up before me. She was opening the way for me. When I looked inside there was the place to step into the center of a circle of women.

In the midst of the ceremony the High Priestess asked me what gift I was bringing? At that moment there was all kinds of noise, the slamming of a huge carved wooden door, with a couple of young men running through the room completely disrespecting the space.

I was annoyed and I said we need to do something about it. The high priestess was delighted.

Dream continued

The ceremony took a turn and I was escorted to a sacred bath area. There were mirrors all around showing my naked body seemingly fuller than I remembered.

I saw crystal clusters and geodes. One geode was predominantly red with a misty white muting the red. There was another milky white quartz cluster...

The Cave of Initiation Continued

Six months later in September 2006, within days of having had my last menstrual cycle (though I didn't know it then) I came across the book Women at the Edge of Two Worlds. The Spiritual Journey Through Menopause by Lynn Andrews. The following passage was a stunning realization of what my dream meant. What follows is quoted from Agnes Whistling Elk a grandmother guide for Lynn in her series of books.

At the change of life came the highest initiation that you would lived through as a woman. It was your initiation into your sacred and spiritual work. Younger women were not allowed into the sacred caves that held this knowledge. These caves were called different names around the world but I will speak of what I know.

*At the entrance to these caves-some exist in the in the dreamtime, some in the physical lodge reality-there were guardians, keepers of the caves. The guardian you will meet, that you will become familiar with, is Women at the Edge of Two Worlds. She is the goddess who initiates all women into their sacredness. She takes you through the labyrinth of mystery and change as you become Changing Woman and helps you discover the highest plateaus of consciousness. These initiations have been forgotten, because the patriarch has become so strong in our existence.

You are about to embark on the most important journey of your life. To become lost in terror about bone loss and heart disease and cancer and aging is to lose what this time can teach you.

I understand your fear, because it is real. You need to comfort your body; help it understand what is happening. When you have been fed a certain food and suddenly that food is taken away, like estrogen, you need to replace it with something equally powerful.

But your state of mind is the most important thing. It is important that you do not throw away your life and say to yourself that have no more reason to live. That would be a tragedy.

...When you have experienced the ceremony...you will then be able to take what you have learned back to your people who so desperately need to walk in balance with one foot in the physical and one foot in the spiritual...

...You will help lead your sisters back to the source of their own truth.

From the book Social Change 2.0, the First Earth Run in 1986 and Hopi Prophecy

A torch of Peace began its journey at the United Nations in New York on Sep 16, 1986.

The Hopi are the "keepers of the dream" and their prophecies (handed down from generation to generation for more than 1000 years) serving as stewards of a profound hope on the planet; that human beings can live in harmony with one another and the Earth.

The most important prophecy states that when humanity is on the brink of self destruction, the Hopi must deliver a message at the great hall of mica.

The Hopi elders determined that the time had come, and the great hall of mica was the glass United Nations building on Manhattan's East Side.

If this message is received, the world will begin the "great turning" toward a thousand years of peace. If it is not received, the world will continue its direction and enter into a thousand years of darkness and war. The Hopi will have four attempts to deliver the message.

From the book Social Change 2.0 and Hopi Prophecy

For the sake of the world, the Hopi diligently sought an audience with the leadership of the United Nations. Three previous requests had been turned down. This was the fourth and final chance.

On the International Day of Peace in the International year Of Peace on September 16 ,1986, the opening day of the U.N. General Assembly Chief Shenandoah of the Iroquois Nation rubbed two sticks together, in the ancient way...creating a blazing fire.

Grandmother Caroline of the Hopi Nation offered this prophecy...

"Humanity is at a crossroads. To continue on this planet, we are being called to achieve a higher level of global community, where we can experience what unites us."

Grandmother Caroline's message of hope inspired everyone in attendance. Over the next eighty-six days, this message was communicated in one form or another to twenty-five million people and forty-five heads of state in sixty-two countries who directly participated in the passage of fire.

Hopi Grandmother
Caroline Tawangyama

The Blue Kachinas are thought to be aliens from another world or dimension. Ancient Hopi prophecy states, "When the Blue Star Kachina makes its appearance in the heavens, the Fifth World will emerge" representing a Time of Purification.

The Hopi Blue Star Kachina is their name for the star Sirius.

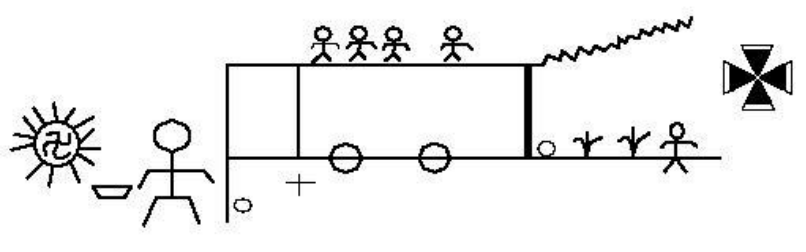

This beaded necklace belonged to Grandmother Caroline and was given to Cayelin in August of 2017 as a gift.

It was given to Cayelin by a friend of Robbie Nelson (picture above) the co-founder of Buffalo Woman Ranch in Dove Creek Colorado. Robbie is a priestess sister we visited May 5, 2000 where we had the pleasure of doing Powerful Ceremony with the seven visible planet alignment at that time and I received the Fire Bird Ring in a give-away (see upper right image) I still wear.

Meaning of the Symbols on Prophecy Rock

The bow in left hand represents the instructions to the Hopi to lay down their weapons. The vertical line from Great Spirit going up is a time scale in thousands of years. Great Spirit touches the line for the time of the return of Great Spirit within the people.

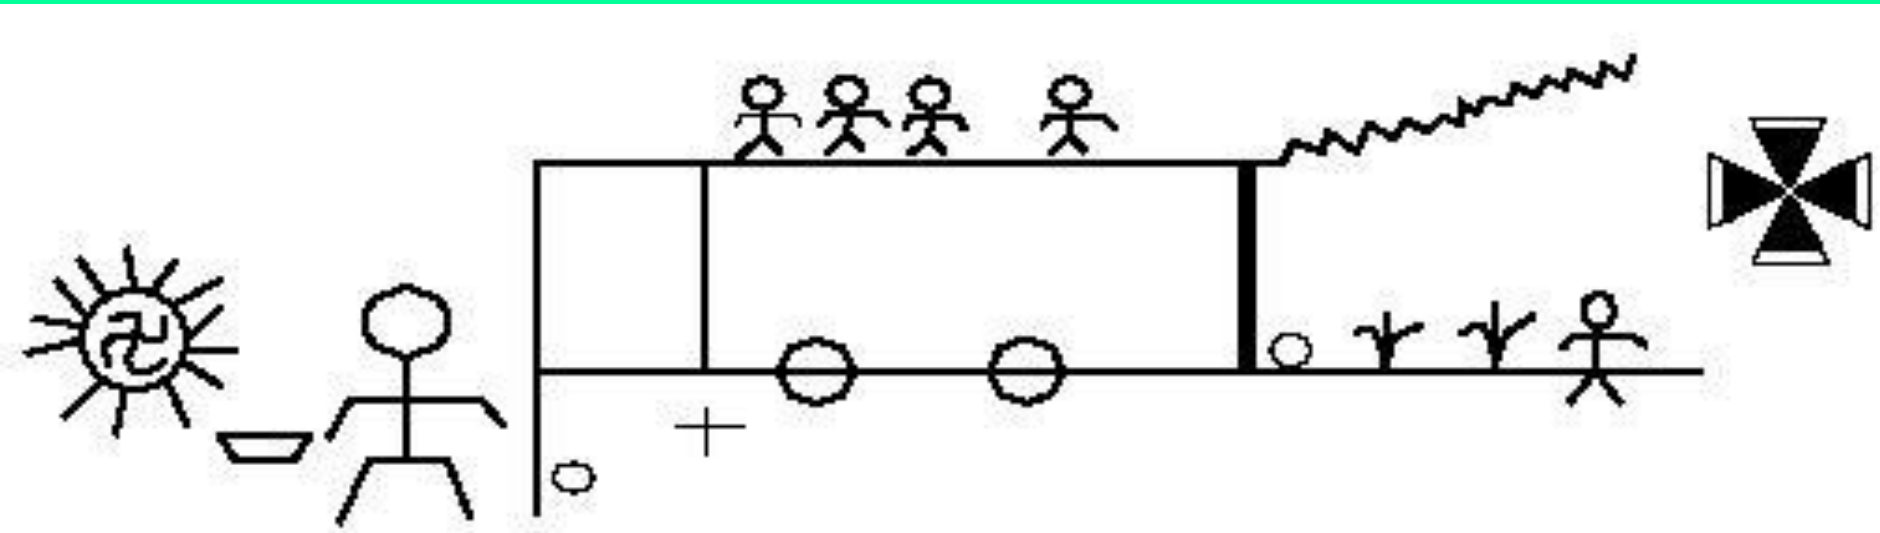

The "life path" divides into the lower, narrow path of continuous Life in harmony with nature and the wide upper road of white man's scientific achievements. The circle below the cross represents the continuous Path of Life.

The four small human figures on the upper road represent, the past three worlds and the present; on another level, the figures indicate that some of the Hopi will travel the white man's path, having been seduced by its glamour.

The two circles on the lower Path of Life are the "great shaking of the Earth" (thought to be World War One and Two).

The swastika in the Sun and the Celtic cross represent the two helpers of Pahana, the True White Brother.

The short line that returns to the straight Path of Life is the last chance for people to turn back to nature before the upper road disintegrates and dissipates. The small circle above the Path of Life, after the last chance, is the Great Purification, when corn will again grow in abundance after Great Spirit Returns.

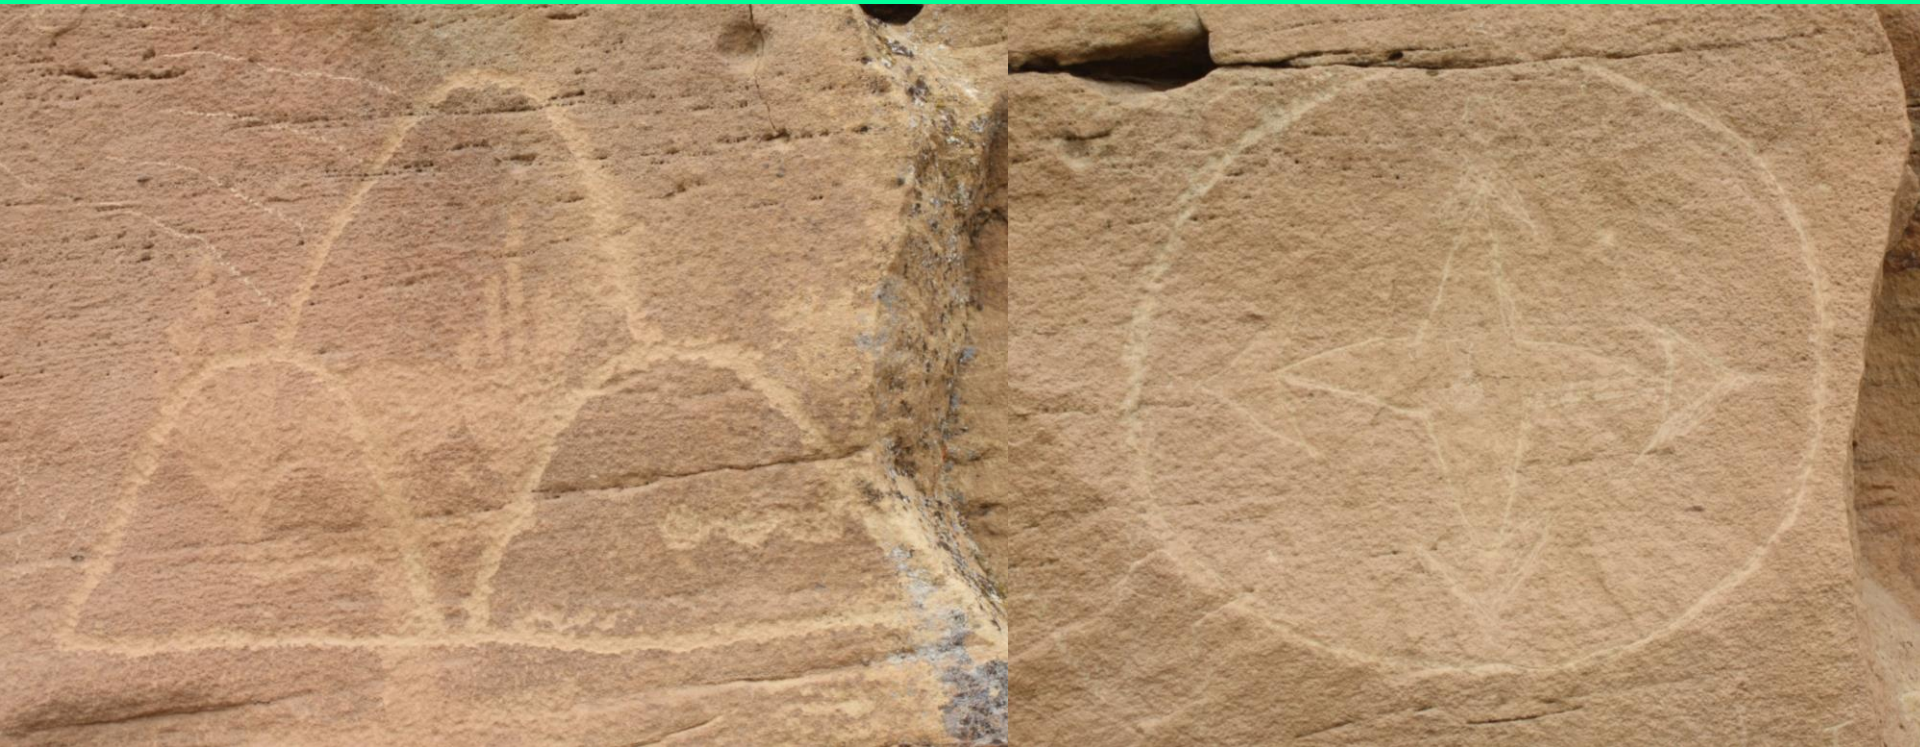

The Path of Life continues forever...

The Hopi shield in the lower right corner symbolizes the Earth and the Four-Corners area where the Hopi were put on a reservation. The arms of the cross also represent the four directions the Hopi migrated to according to the instructions of Great Spirit.

The dots represent the four colors of Hopi corn, and the four racial colors of humanity.

Hopi Indian Prophecy

"Near the day of purification, there will be cobwebs spun back and forth in the sky"

Grandmother Spider or to the Hopi Spider Grandmother is thought to be the Creatrix of the World and responsible for the stars in the sky. She joins the Earth with the Sky.

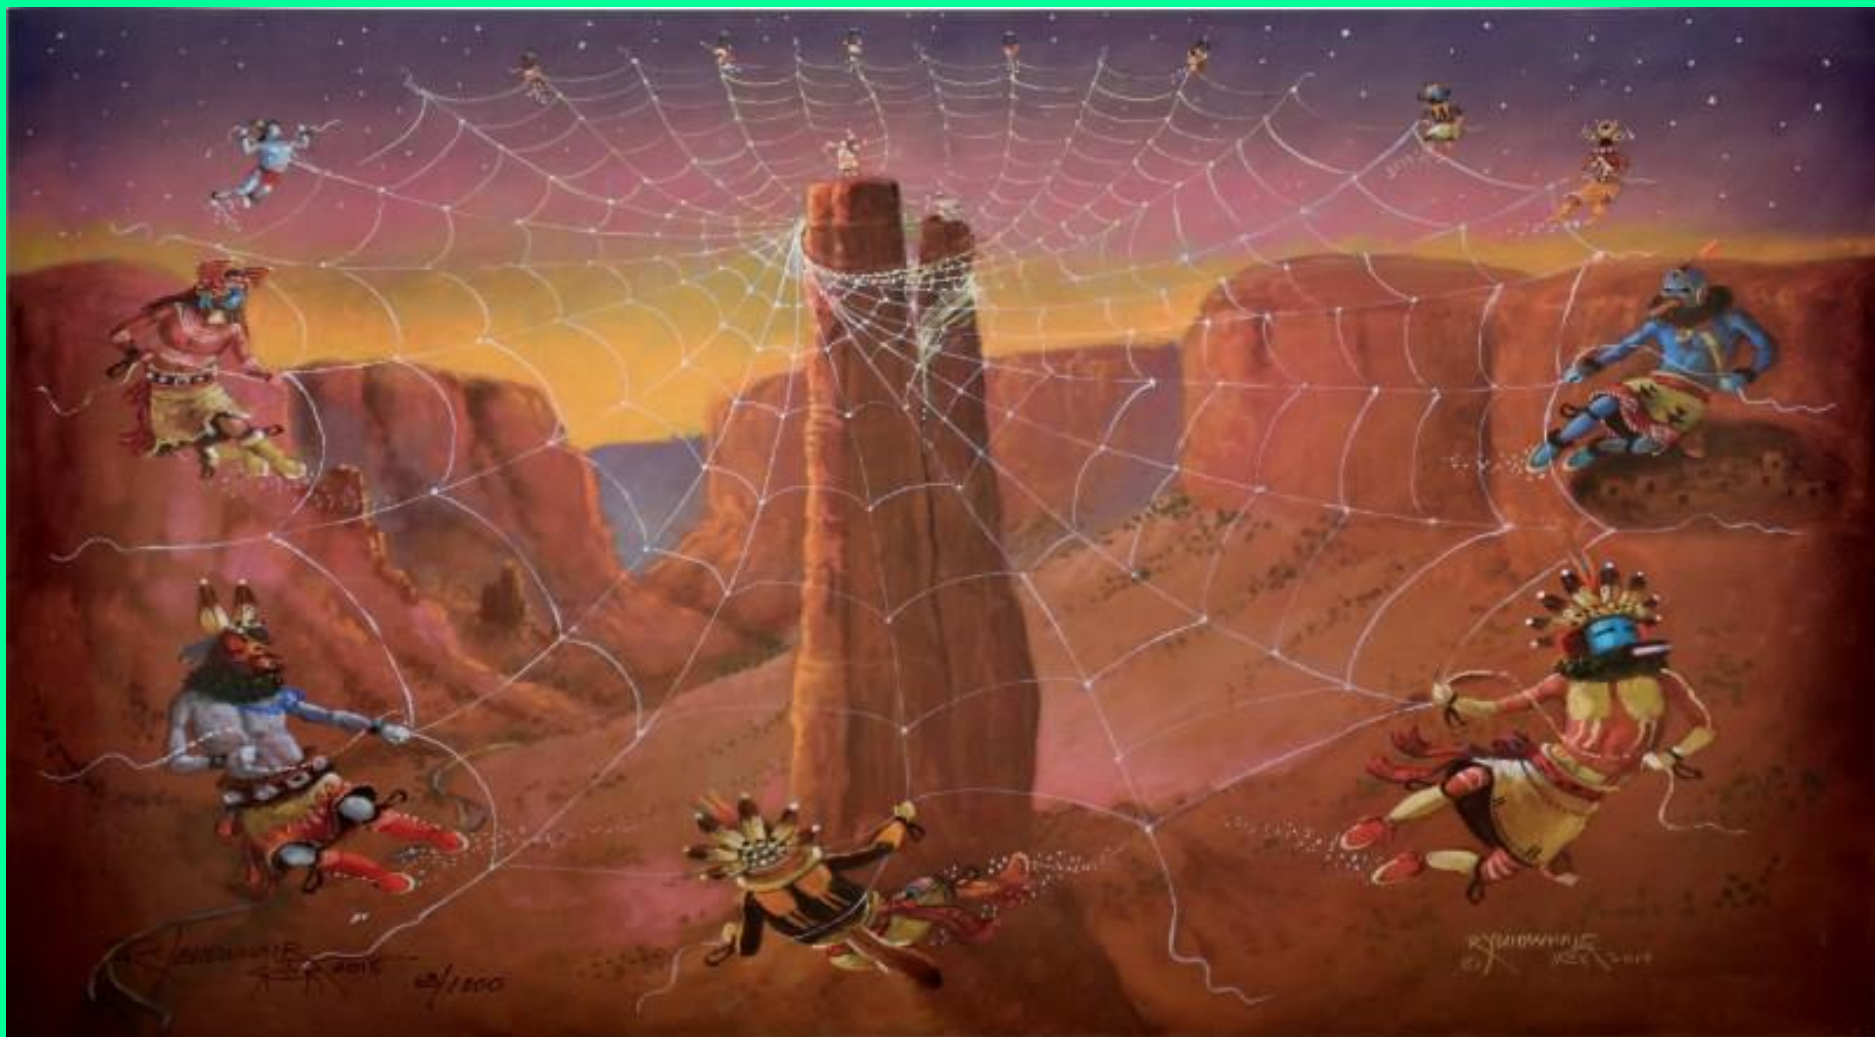

Their story is how she took a web she had spun, laced it with dew, threw it into the sky and the dew became the stars.

The Hopi entered this Fourth World through the Sipapu (or place of emergence). The Hopi Sipapu is located in the Grand Canyon Village, near the confluence of the Colorado and the Little Colorado Rivers.

One version of the emergence story is that Grandmother Spider caused a hollow reed (or bamboo) to grow into the sky.

Where it emerged was in the Fourth World at the sipapu. The Hopi people climbed up this reed into this world emerging from the sipapu (the Grand Canyon) .

Artistic Depiction of Grandmother Spider Rock with Kachinas weaving a web
in Canyon de Chelly, Arizona

This Hopi petroglyph in Mesa Verde National Park shows a boxy spiral shape thought to represent the "sipapu" or the place where the Hopi emerged from the earth in their creation story.

Great Spirit created Grandmother Spider, or Spider Woman. Great Spirit told her she was had the power to create life, movement, and joyful sound and she had the knowledge and wisdom to bless all her creations.

Grandmother Spider Woman then took the earth and mixed it with water creating a twins giving them creative wisdom as she sang the song of creation over them.

When the twins asked who they were and why they were here, she addressed Twin One on the right saying you are POQANGOHOYA. You are here to help solidify this world.

Speaking to Twin Two on the left she said you are PALONGAWHOYA. You are here to send out sound so it is heard throughout all the land and when this sound is heard you will also be known as Echo for all sound echoes the Great Creator.

Twin One traveled over the Earth solidifying the higher and lower reaches making sure it was still pliable enough to be used by those beings that were to live on it.

Twin Two traveled the Earth sounding along the vibration centers and along the earths axis from pole to pole. The whole earth trembled and the universe quivered in tune. Thus the whole world was made an instrument of sound for carrying messages, and sending resounding praise to the creator of all.

When complete with their duties twin one traveled to the north pole axis and twin two to the south pole to keep the world properly rotating. T

Twin one keeps the Earth's form stable. Twin Two keeps the air in gentle movement, sending messages of insight or warning through the vibratory centers of the earth.

Then Spider Woman working with the Earth created the trees, bushes, flowers and other plants a long with all the birds and animals giving them all life, wisdom and their own name singing them into form.

Grandmother Spider was happy and delighted with the beauty of this creation . Joyfully she called Great Spirit to behold the world. Great Spirit was pleased saying "The Earth is now ready for human life to complete my plan."

It is time for us to remember the creative Gifts and Wisdom of Grandmother Spider to assist us in co-creating a new web of life, a new even more beautiful and harmonious way of living and working together. How do we mend the tears in the web? How do we weave a new web where needed fulfilling this intent?

Grandmothers and Owls

In our Venus Community, especially when working in the Capricorn cycle, women and men have been visited by owls in dreams and waking life.

This connection was powerful for me as my own grandmother loved owls and they embodied her own fierce, wise nature, as well as the ways her female intuition intelligence and power were suppressed in the culture surrounding her.

Grandmothers and Owls

Cayelin and Tami began facilitating the Capricorn Venus Cycle Class when Pluto was on Tami's Midheaven in Capricorn.

For Tami, this empowered the Dark Goddess archetype of the Grandmothers and she received a vision with a circle of Owl Grandmothers helping her to “die a good death.”
